TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT

THE year just closed has been one of prosperity to the Home, which each year is becoming better known to workers among children as an institution almost unique of its kind,—not burdened with debts, honoring its bills as soon as rendered, and at the same time providing a wholesome, comfortable Christian home for all children committed to its care by Overseers of the Poor, by Commissioners of Borough Charities, or by parents unable to give them proper care in their own homes.

There is no useless expenditure encouraged; the house is plain in construction and furnishings, without unnecessary ornamentation, adapted to the purpose for which it was intended,—a "Home" in every sense of the word for dependent children, where each can lead his own individual life under the wise guidance of competent caretakers.

Owing to the increased cost of living and labor it has been found necessary to increase the weekly per capita rate charged for the board of children to two dollars per week for Nassau County and Queens Borough. Mr. Leavitt was instructed to confer with the Supervisors and Overseers of Nassau County in regard to the proposed rate. They were progressive enough to realize the justice of the measure, and promised co-operation and acceptance of the fact.

By receiving a few more children the Home would be placed on a firmer financial basis, and Mr. Leavitt preferred a request from the Commissioner of the Borough of Manhattan to send here twenty children who have since become inmates. Sufficient space is reserved for County and Borough children, who are considered the principal beneficiaries for whom the Home was established.

Since the Home opened, 728 children have been received and cared for. This year 75 have entered and 38 have been discharged. Highest number at one time, 67. At present 63 are in the Home, 46 boys and 17 girls. Of the number coming and going during the year Oyster Bay sent 14, North Hempstead 40, Borough of Manhattan 20, Borough of Brooklyn 2.

We repeat, with gratitude to the Father above, that there have been three deaths only since the Home was established, the last one occurring in 1892. Is not this indeed a remarkable record?

During the year just closed only ailments of an ordinary nature, such as all children are subject to, have been experienced. One little girl had inflammatory rheumatism and was sent to Nassau Hospital for treatment in preference to hiring a trained nurse. After remaining six or seven weeks she was returned to her friends much improved. One boy was also there for ten days at expense of Overseer Hoffman. Dr. Skinner continues his services to the Home, which are much appreciated. He meets the requirements of the Board of Health, vaccinates the children, etc., for which he is renumerated; otherwise his services are gratuitous. From time to time the Managers are enabled to remember him for unusual services by check, but he refuses to make an annual charge for services. Dr. Joseph H. Bogart is always ready to assist when called upon. Dr. C. G. J. Finn, consulting surgeon, has died since writing last report.

Mrs. Hunting remains with us as matron, assisted by her daughter, Miss Hunting. Miss Robinson, assisted by Mrs. Kennecht when needed, is in charge of the sewing-room. Miss Hyatt presides in the school-room.

The Managers feel that this faithful staff is deserving of their gratitude for their careful oversight and conscientious discharge of duties devolving upon them in their daily intercourse with the Home children. Example is more powerful than precept, especially with children, who are such imitative little creatures, and these children will carry with them through life memories of lessons in self-control and forbearance imbibed from these faithful caretakers.

Miss Hyatt, in addition to her school duties, visits numbers of the children in their outside homes. In many instances she finds much to encourage and cheer her. It may be interesting to many to learn that of our children sent out into the great whirlpool of life four of our boys have become bookkeepers, one is in a city bank, six are clerks in stores, one is in the Army, and one in the Navy. Of our girls, two are trained nurses, three are teachers, several have become dressmakers and milliners, and several have married. Who can tell to what heights of prominence or position they may attain? And if the world is helped by the presence of good, manly, honest boys and industrious, high-principled girls, who shall say that we have worked for naught? Several of the girls and one boy, former inmates of the Home, have become regular paid helpers and are doing well, seeming much interested in their duties.

The Managers and Executive Committees have held their usual meetings. We regret that the Managers' meetings do not call out so large an attendance as could be desired. This gentle reminder may be sufficient to bring about the desired result. Sometimes an absent Manager will say, "We know the interests of the Home are in safe hands, and that those present will attend to all necessary business." While this is very complimentary to those present, it would be still more so if all the Managers would attend and share the interests in common.

The Executive meetings have been well attended, and as these meetings occur monthly it means much time and effort on the part of those who come, in several instances from many miles distant. The Executive Committee desires every Manager to know of all work undertaken at the Home, and full reports of proceedings are given at every Board meeting.

The annual meeting was held at the Home on Tuesday, October 2, 1906, Mrs. James R. Willets in the chair, at which time the following Managers were elected for a term of three years:

Miss Hattie White, Long Island City. Mrs. Oliver L. Jones, Oyster Bay.
Mrs. Walter E. Frew, Hempstead. Mrs. G. Howland Leavitt, at large.
Mrs. A. J. Cordier, Jamaica. Mrs. T. Tredwell, at large.
Mrs. John Birdsall, Oyster Bay.

Mr. Stephen R. Hewlett was elected auditor for the coming year.

At this meeting notice was given of proposed changes in Articles I, II, VII, IX, and XV of the Constitution, which in November were duly considered and made, as reference to the printed Constitution will show.

The following officers were elected for the year:

Mrs. Wm. E. Townsend, President.
Mrs. A. A. Degrauw, First Vice-President.
Mrs. James R. Willets, Second Vice-President.
Mrs. C. J. Stewart, Secretary.
Mr. G. Howland Leavitt, Treasurer.

The Executive Committee, with the officers ex officio, was elected as follows:

Mrs. C. D. Leverich, chairman; Miss Anna Willets, Mrs. G. Howland Leavitt, Mrs. T. Tredwell, Mrs. S. L. Pettit, Mrs. I. H. Cocks.

The following Standing Committees were appointed:

House Committee.— Mrs. G. Howland Leavitt, chairman; Miss Kate M. Riddell, Mrs. Louis N. Lanehart, Miss Hattie White, Mrs. C. A. Willets, Jr.

Supply Committee.— Mrs. Seaman L. Pettit, chairman; Mrs. John Birdsall, Miss A. J. Float, Mr. G. Howland Leavitt, Mrs. Benjamin D. Hicks.

Clothing Committee.— Mrs. William E. Townsend, chairman; Mrs. James R. Willets, Mrs. Jesse Browne, Jr., Mrs. A. A. Degrauw, Mrs. Daniel Underhill.

Instruction Committee.— Mrs. T. Tredwell, chairman; Mr. S. R. Hewlett, Mrs. James H. Cruikshank, Mrs. Walter E. Frew, Miss Mary Youngs.

Committee for Placing Children in Homes.— Miss Anna Willets, chairman; Mrs. I. L. Moe, Miss Mary Post, Miss Carrie A. Walters, Mrs. Oliver Whitson.

The above Committees have materially helped the Home during the past year, and present interesting reports each month, and also one that is embodied in the Annual Report.

For the House Committee, Mrs. G. Howland Leavitt reports:

REPORT OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE.

During the past year we have spent for double-boilers, knives, plates, spoons, pails, table oil-cloth, etc., $39.80.

Respectfully submitted, Amelia W. Leavitt, Chairman.

Mrs. Seaman L. Pettit has had a large Home family to supply this past year, but, as always, proved herself equal to the emergency. She presents the following report of the Supply Committee, of which she is chairman.

REPORT OF SUPPLY COMMITTEE.

Again we are obliged to come before you with the same prosy statement as to food supplies. But as these are among the most necessary articles with which to meet the needs of the children confided to our care, the same uninteresting story has to be repeated from year to year. No exact figures need be given as to the cost of the articles purchased for use in the Home, as these items will appear in the report of the Treasurer. That the Home still retains its place in the interest of the people of the communities is manifested by the number and variety of the articles received as donations, and for which the Committee are glad to express their gratitude. It is hoped that as the years pass by the interest in this institution may steadily increase, and the number of these generous friends mulitply, so that a much larger number of children may receive the benefit of the moral and educational training to be found in the Home thus provided for them. We desire to mention here the excellent care given to all supplies sent the Home, by our careful and efficient Matron, Mrs. Hunting, in whose hands we intrust these donations and purchased food supplies, knowing that they will be used with discretion and judgment and to the best interests of the Home.

Respectfully submitted, HENRIETTA A. PETTIT, Chairman.

Mrs. William E. Townsend, chairman of the Clothing Committee, reports the purchase of numerous demands for the sewing-room and clothes-closet as follows.

REPORT OF CLOTHING COMMITTEE.

The expenditures of this Committee during the past year have necessarily been larger than for several years, first because the number of children has been increased, and secondly some of the bedding needed renewing. In February last, our seamstress, Miss Shepherd, was called to England by the illness of her mother, and her place was filled temporarily by a Mrs. Collins, who very soon realized that she was not fitted for the work. We were very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Alice Robinson, who has proved to be a very valuable acquisition to the sewing-room, and who is also very competent in assisting with the care of the children. Owing to the increase in our numbers, we have quite frequently been obliged to employ, by the day, an assistant seamstress, in order to keep up with the work.

The Westbury Sewing Circle made and donated one dozen nightgowns, and the East Williston Sewing Society two dozen of the same garments. The Thread and Needle Club of Westbury have made three dozen underwaists, which were cut out for them by our seamstress.

There have been made in the sewing-room 282 new garments, viz.: 80 boys' waists, 30 boys' shirts, 82 pairs of pants, 11 girls' dresses, 18 night-dresses, 56 wash cloths, 4 shirt-waists, and 1 boy's suit. There have been as usual many donations of garments for both boys and girls, that have been made over to good advantage, and for which we are very grateful.

The hospital rooms have been changed into additional dormitories for the boys, which it was necessary to furnish with beds, mattresses, blankets, etc. These, together with some new ones that were required in the old dormitories, have been provided at a cost of $184.58. The pillows were donated. Shoes have been purchased to the amount of $177.27. Other purchases, consisting of suits for the new boys, materials for girls' dresses, boys' waists and pants, underwear, stockings, shoe laces, toothbrushes, scrubbing-brushes, combs, machine cotton, pins, etc., amounted to $159.54, making a total of $521.39.

Respectfully submitted, Anna W. Townsend, Chairman.

For the Instruction Committee, Mrs. T. Tredwell, chairman, presents the following interesting report.

REPORT OF INSTRUCTION COMMITTEE.

The School has continued the same during the year, with between fifty-five and sixty pupils attending. Thanksgiving was observed with the usual service, and also the entertainment at Christmas. The public entertainment on Arbor Day was appreciated by a large audience. St. Valentine's Day, Flag Day, and all the other holidays have been appropriately observed. Most of the children attended the County Fair, which is always a red-letter day for them, and through the kindness of Miss Float and Mr. Thomas Albertson who each contributed five dollars, they enjoyed the treat of candy, popcorn, ice-cream, etc.

The children greatly enjoyed the entertainments, by different friends, of singing, piano, recitations, gramophone, and addresses, also several donations of ice-cream, peanuts, candies, and cakes. Mrs. James R. Willets gave a chair for the teacher's desk, and through friends and personal efforts of some of the scholars who sold their hand-made articles we are happy in offering comfortable seats to our guests.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Carman there have been no meetings of the Loyal Temperance Legion during the summer, but the children are anticipating their renewal.

Miss Hyatt is especially adapted in bringing out the best in every scholar, and works on the line that in material achievement there are two elements, executive force and the great creative power — imagination. She is most helpful to the children in making ways and means for the ones who have developed decided business preferences, enabling them to procure instruction in special studies after leaving our Home, and later in securing responsible and well-paying positions. It is thus seen that her duties and interests extend far beyond the school-room. Again we solicit more frequent visits from friends, trusting they will try to make possible some plans for the advancement of the scholars.

Respectfully submitted, Annie M. Tredwell, Chairman.

For the Committee for Placing Children in Homes, Miss Anna Willets, chairman, tells of the work of the Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE FOR PLACING CHILDREN IN HOMES.

There have been admitted to the Home from October 1, 1906, to October 1, 1907, by commitment of the Poor Law officers, 26 boys and 19 girls, total 35; from parents or guardians, 3 boys and 2 girls, total 5. Discharged from the Home during the year, and returned to parents or guardians, 22 boys and 11 girls, total 34. Placed in homes, 2 boys and 3 girls, total 5. Number of inmates in the Home on September 30, 1907, 63. Of these 40 boys and 14 girls, total 54, were received by commitment of the Poor Law officers, and 6 boys and 3 girls, total 9, from parents. It is with pleasure that the Managers of the Home see it filling up once more with neglected children needing care. We have passed through the year without much sickness, and the general health of the children has been very good.

Thinking our friends of the Home might enjoy a little account of the boys and girls that have gone out and are doing for themselves, I quote from our devoted teacher, who has kept personally in touch with many of them. She has visited this year at least twenty-five or more of them, many who are married and keeping house, happy and comfortable, and most of them earning a good living. We find them employed as teachers, bookkeepers, and clerks in banks, drug-stores and commission houses. There are plumbers, carpenters, soldiers and sailors, dressmakers, stenographers, and trained nurses. Indeed, nearly every industry claims one or more. Years ago one little boy thought if he could be a junkman with six bells on his wagon he would be happy. He is now nineteen, in a broker's office in the city, and thinks it must have been some other little boy that had such absurd ideas. While they have drifted all over the country, they do not seem to forget the days at the Home, often bringing their husbands or wives to visit the Home, and spend an hour or more in the school-house talking over old times. There are many pleasant things that could be told of the respect and affection many of these young people hold for their caretakers and teachers who so faithfully instilled in them principles for the building of character.

Respectfully submitted, Anna Willets, Chairman.

For Thanksgiving a bountiful dinner was provided of chicken, potatoes, turnips, cranberries, pumpkin pies, apples, bananas, etc., toward which Mr. Schenck donated six chickens, which Mrs. Horther cooked. After dinner

Mrs. Hunting and Miss Shepherd hired a large wagon and took thirty-five children for a drive. All concluded they had much to be thankful for.

At Christmas a delightful time was enjoyed by all. With the good dinner, the Christmas gifts and cheer provided by many kind friends, the day was one long to be remembered. Mrs. Tredwell and Mr. S. R. Hewlett acted as Christmas Committee and purchased all gifts which were provided for every child and helper by the Managers. Spinney Memorial Sunday-school of Great Neck sent 35 Christmas stockings filled with goodies, also toys, games, books, etc.—a wagon load, delivered by Mr. Benjamin L. Coffin, who has brought a load to the Home for nine years.

Dr. Cooley's Sunday-school at Glen Cove, also a most faithful contributor, sent its usual bountiful collection of gifts of books, toys, etc.,

Mrs. Hunting and Miss Shepherd gave the children a treat on Christmas Eve, also gifts.

On Fourth of July a box of fireworks was received from Consolidated Fireworks Company of America (Mr. W. A. Turner). Dr. Skinner sent a young man to fire them off and prevent accidents. Mrs. Tredwell sent a bountiful supply of ice-cream and cake for all.

Arbor Day was observed as usual. The day opened with heavy rain, but clearing toward noon. A goodly number attended the children's exercises, which were up to the usual standard of excellence. A number of pretty articles were donated for the fancy table, also a number of aprons. Many delicious cakes, for which the ladies of the neighborhood are noted, and ice-cream, were received by the Refreshment Committee. We regret that the list of cakes with the names of the donors was mislaid, making it impossible to mention each one in our printed list of donations, but we gratefully acknowledge their receipt in this way, and thank each one for the beautiful cakes that did such credit to the housewives sending them. Mrs. James R. Willets, Miss Kate M. Riddell, and Mr. Warren Cruikshank each sent checks for $25, which we gratefully acknowledge.

The annual picnic was held this year upon the Home grounds, with a bountiful supply of cake and ice-cream. The fact was realized that the responsibility was somewhat heavy of transporting this large family of children over the highway in wagons, with dangers from trolley-cars and automobiles; in consequence of which it was decided to make use of the pleasant Home grounds. Mr. Leavitt contributed five dollars toward picnic expenses, which was devoted toward ice-cream. The confectioner also donated one gallon of cream. Mr. Isaac H. Cocks sent ten tickets to the Home for an entertainment of the Boys' Club.

The children attended the Queens-Nassau Fair, and reflected credit upon those in charge. Miss Hyatt arranged an exhibit to send to this Fair of the work of the school-children, consisting of basketry, hemstitching, embroidery on linen, cross-stitch, centerpieces, etc., the entire work being made by the children themselves.

The children attend school, assist in housework, scrub, prepare vegetables, etc. The boys have a garden which has not been as flourishing as in former years, but they are learning something about the cultivation of the soil and chickens. These are interesting as well as useful subjects for them to acquire a knowledge of. One boy is handy with tools and has put in seventeen window cords, besides other repairs.

A visit of inspection was made on March 1, 1907, by Mr. R. W. Wallace, representing the State Board of Charities, in which the improvements mentioned in last report were noted.

The long-distance telephone has been found a great convenience, in fact a necessity. The Managers and Matron feel a degree of comfort in knowing that mutual communication can be had quickly by this wonderful instrument.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee held in July, Miss Riddell, who was present, expressed a desire to furnish the Managers' room and reception hall with new rugs,—"something to remind the Committee of her,"—and for that purpose donated the sum of $30. Not being well, she requested Mrs. James R. Willets and Mrs. William E. Townsend to act for her in the matter and procure suitable rugs. Having new rugs would necessarily make the furniture, which had seen much wear, appear to great disadvantage. It was not considered good enough to repair satisfactorily, so the proposition was made that the rooms be entirely refurnished, and that any Manager so inclined might contribute toward it by giving a chair, etc. A ready response was accorded this proposition which resulted in twelve handsome oak chairs with leather seats being purchased, also polished library table and revolving chair for use of the Secretary. The amount expended was $132.25. The improvement is very marked, and calls for universal commendation. The Managers feel justly proud of their attractive Home rooms. These gifts have been supplemented by that of a hall mirror and clothes-tree by Mrs. James R. Willets. The names of those contributing to the new furniture will be found in the list of donations, with amounts given.

Another greatly appreciated donation was that made by Mr. Leavitt, who had the system of hot-water heating, that had completely given out, entirely overhauled, involving a large expenditure which he met and gave to the Home. New floorings have been laid in both playrooms and in the upper hall. The buildings are in excellent order. The windmill is a source of much expense and inconvenience, having become worn by time, etc. Lack of wind often causes hindrance in filling the tank, so necessary in the Home work. Could not some other power be substituted for pumping the water and thus overcome this serious drawback?

Societies assisting the Home during the year have been: Roslyn Club, Sunshine Society, Spinney Memorial Church of Great Neck, Jericho First Day School, Glen Cove Presbyterian Sunday-school, East Williston Sewing Society, Westbury Sewing Society, Southhold Presbyterian Church, Thread and Needle Club of Westbury, Presbyterian Sunday-school of Corona, Queens-Nassau Agricultural Society.

During the past year the Board of Managers has been deprived of one of its members and officers by death. Mrs. A. A. Degrauw died at her home in Jamaica on June 15, after an illness of seven months' duration. Mrs. Degrauw was one of the Charter members of the Home, a member of the Board of Managers since its organization, and at the time of her death First Vice-President. She was always deeply interested in all that pertained to its welfare, although unable latterly to take part in its proceedings. She named the Home as one of the beneficiaries under her will, leaving a large amount to be devoted toward the maintenance of the school, which building she had erected in memory of her son. Resolutions of sympathy on her death were drawn up and sent to her family, and duly acknowledged.

Mr. Leavitt has received during the year the sum of $500, a legacy from the estate of the late Mrs. Josephine

O. Skillman, of Roslyn, who requested Mrs. T. Tredwell to direct how the sum should be applied. Mrs. Tredwell has named the proposed new hospital building as the object. This proposed new hospital building has been made necessary by the use of the present hospital rooms for extra dormitory purposes. This privilege was granted the Home by the President of the Board of Health, provided the Home should erect a separate building for a hospital. The energies of the Managers are now directed to this end, and a fair is in preparation to acquire funds with which to carry out this intention. Mrs. Tredwell is its chairman and extends a cordial invitation to all friends for co-operation. Plans are being considered, and if sufficient funds are secured the near future will see the completion of this new addition to the Home property.

The Treasurer reported on November 19, 1907, that the receipts from the Fair for the new Hospital Building, held on October 11 and 12, amounted to $2023.61 to date. Thanks are extended to all who kindly assisted with time, money, or articles donated.

Respectfully submitted, J. E. Stewart,

October, 1907. Secretary Board of Managers.

REPORT OF ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the association of Children's Home was held at the Home, Mineola, on Tuesday, October 1, 1907. Fifteen members were present. Mrs. William E. Townsend, President, called the meeting to order and read the 100th Psalm. Mrs. Stewart acted as secretary.

The annual report of the Board of Managers, prepared by the Secretary, was read, accepted with thanks, and ordered to be printed as usual.

The Treasurer's annual report was read, showing the balance in Nassau County Bank to be $341.71. It was reported that the proposed changes in the Constitution, notice of which was given at the last annual meeting, had been acted upon at a meeting of the Association held last November, and had become permanent.

No other business being presented, upon motion the election of seven Managers was then proceeded with.

Miss Float was made teller, and upon motion of Mr. Leavitt was authorized to cast one vote for each of the following members, whose names had been duly presented, all of whom were declared elected Managers to serve three years: Mrs. I. L. Moe, to represent Newtown; Miss K. M. Riddell, at large; Mrs. G. Howland Leavitt, Flushing; Mrs. Seaman L. Pettit, Hempstead; Mrs. Charles J. Stewart, at large; Miss F. W. Blackwell, Long Island City; Mrs. William E. Townsend, at large. There being a vacancy in the Board of Managers caused by the death of Mrs. A. A. Degrauw, Mrs. Earl A. Gillespie of Woodhaven was elected Manager for the unexpired term. Mr. S. R. Hewlett was elected auditor for the year.

Respectfully submitted, J. E. Stewart, Secretary.

All members of this Association shall pay an initiation fee of at least five (5) dollars, and thereafter an annual fee of one (1) dollar.

The non-payment of said annual fee within three (3) months after the annual meeting in October, shall be considered equivalent to a resignation, and the name of the person thus neglecting to pay shall be stricken from the roll of membership.

They shall hold office for the term of three years respectively, and seven of their number shall be elected each year by the Association at its annual meeting.

They shall hold stated meetings every three months, and special meetings at any time when called by the President at the request of three members of the Board.

They may adopt a set of By-Laws for their own government, and make all necessary rules and regulations for the proper administration of their trust; subject, however, to the direction of the Association, to which they shall submit an annual report of their proceedings.

They shall also appoint and dismiss the Superintendent and Matron, and shall fix their compensation.

They shall also have power to fill, until the next regular election, all vacancies that occur in the Board.
